anniversary of the National Soap Box Derby, was the biggest ever. Here, participating in the Parade of Champions is Warren's own Frank Burgett. That's Frank in the middle, carrying a Warren banner . . . Celebrities at the huge affair included film stars George Montgomery and James Stewart, both of whom enjoyed the spectacle. The third picture shows the start of a race in the Oil Can Derby. All pictures by Sparky, who attended the races in his official capacity as Times-Mirror photographer.

SEC. DULLES OFFERS PLEA FOR AID FUND

Washington, (AP)—Secretary of State Dulles told senators today that "the whole foundation of our security structure is endangered" by the House cut of $809,650,000 in the foreign aid appropriations bill. If Congress is unwilling to provide the funds to help allies maintain their defenses, Dulles said, we face a new insecurity and a future of grave risks.

"The Senate faces a great responsibility to save the nation from this peril."

Dulles headed a team of four top administration figures bidding at a meeting of the Senate Appropriations Committee for upward revision of the House-passed bill. Accompanying him to the session were John B. Hollister, outgoing foreign aid director; Adm. Arthur W. Radford, retired chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff; and Gen. Nathan F. Twining, Radford's successor.

Before the session began, Sen. Mundt (R-SD) told newsmen he would try to put Congress on record as favoring a requirement that nations receiving economic loans must make some annual repayment.

There was no immediate indication as to the administration attitude toward this proposal.

The Dulles-Hollister-Radford-Twining team met with the appropriations committee behind closed doors, but their statements were made public.

Their visit with the senators was only part of an intensive administration effort to loosen the congressional purse strings for foreign aid.

Titusville Girl Is Killed Instantly, Companion Badly Injured in Crash on Rt. Six

JANET MAE MOORE

BARBARA ANN ROSEMAN

Miss Janet Mae Moore, 19, of 526 W. Spruce St., Titusville, was killed instantly and Miss Barbara Ann Roseman, 17, of 402 E. Spruce St., same city, critically hurt in a one-car crash near Youngsville at 3:45 a. m. Saturday. The girls, who were to be contestants in the Miss Crawford County contest tonight, were returning from shopping trip to Jamestown, N. Y., where they purchased shoes, bathing suits and a formal for the contest.

A 19-year-old Titusville girl was killed early Saturday morning just west of Youngsville as she returned from a shopping trip to Jamestown for shoes to wear in a beauty contest.

The victim, Miss Janet M. Moore, was found lying beside the wreckage with a dashboard knob stuck in her forehead.

A second passenger in the car, Miss Barbara Roseman, 17, of Titusville, was taken to Warren General Hospital in deep shock and is reported in serious condition today. Miss Roseman, assumed to be driver of the death vehicle, sustained multiple lacerations of the face and body.

According to troopers who investigated, the mishap occurred about 3:45 a. m. Saturday on Route 6 approximately a mile west of Youngsville as the pair was proceeding toward Titusville. The 1953 Chevrolet coupe left the highway and struck an abutment of Mead Run bridge right beside the road. Several other fatalities have also happened at the spot.

Coroner Ed. C. Lowrey said death was caused by skull fracture and the victim also sustained broken arms and legs.

The mishap was discovered by Norman E. Murray of Long Island, N. Y. He was driving along Route 6 when he came across the accident scene. He sped into nearby Youngsville and called police. Youngsville volunteers brought

Scotland Yard Probes Death Of Beauchamp

London (AP)—Anthony Beauchamp made a 4 a. m. telephone call to the blonde sister of the Marquis of Londonderry only a few hours before he died. The marquis has been one of the critics of Queen Elizabeth II's court.

Scotland Yard indicated today this call may help them in placing together the last hours of Beauchamp. The 39-year-old society photographer and television producer was the husband of Sarah Churchill and son-in-law of Sir Winston Churchill.

Beauchamp was found early yesterday morning sprawled across a bed in the fashionable Hyde Park apartment where he lived alone. On a table rested a half-empty box of sleeping pills.

Beauchamp and his wife had been living apart for three years.

Lady Jane Van-Tempest-Stewart, 25-year-old sister of Londonderry, told police: "I pleaded with Anthony and tried to persuade him not to be foolish. I was frantic. While I talked, suddenly the line seemed to go dead."

Pony-tailed Lady Jane called police, who broke into Beauchamp's apartment and found him dead.

Lady Jane came home from a vacation in the south of France Saturday and saw Beauchamp in the evening. The phone call followed a few hours later.

Two other beautiful women who knew Beauchamp were being questioned by police.

Shamini Teruchelvam, dusky dark-eyed model from Ceylon, also saw Beauchamp Saturday. She described him as "one of my dearest and closest friends."

Miss Teruchelvam, who was the photographer's favorite model, told a reporter: "I certainly don't think I was the last person to see him alive. He was a very wonderful and great man."

Lord Portman's niece, Mrs. Davina West, told a reporter Beauchamp had drinks with her in her basement flat in Bohemian Chelsea last week.

City Tournaments At the Playgrounds

Fred Bell, playground supervisor, announced today that city tournaments are being held Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday of this week to determine champions in various sports. Thursday will be picnic day with a pie eating contest at each area and recognition of outstanding performers for various playgrounds. Friday there will be a soap bubble contest in the afternoon. Friday evening at 8:30 playgrounds will be supervised for the last time in 1957. Equipment will remain on playgrounds and open for use until after opening of school. Children are urged to use caution while using the equipment during these unsupervised periods.

Detroit and Boston Without Newspaper Result of Strikes

By The Associated Press

Eight million persons in two major cities—Detroit and Boston—are without newspapers today because of disputes between publishers and the men who prepare the papers for mailing and distribution.

Radio and television tried to fill the news gap but merchants in both cities were hamstrung for a place to advertise their August sales. The pinch was being felt more in Boston where 300 mailers struck Aug. 10 in a contract dispute with the six morning and evening papers.

Detroit's three newspapers suspended publication yesterday because of a labor dispute involving one of them. The executive secretary of the Detroit Newspapers Publishers Assn., Robert C. Butz, said that under point contracts "a strike against one paper is a strike against all."

FATALITY NEAR KANE

Kane, (AP)—John M. Hoover, 44, of North Tonawanda, N. Y., was fatally injured early today in a one-car crash. Hoover's auto skidded off Route 219 about nine miles south of nearby Mount Jewett. He was alone.

Bill Yeager, Jr. Wins at Regatta; Ends Racing Career

William Yeager, Jr., Warren's claim to fame in the speedboat racing world, hung up his horsepower Sunday when he announced his retirement after successfully defending his E racing Runabout national title in two five-mile heats during Buffalo Launch Club's 1957 Regatta which opened on Niagara river.

Bill piloted his "Go-Devil I" to two successive heat victories. Average times were 59.9 and 56.11 miles per hour.

"This was my first race of 1957," Yeager said later, "and it's the last of my career. I'm putting my boat up for sale. Ten years is a long time to bounce around on these water broncos."

Bill's other boat, "Go-Devil II" did not finish the first race or start the second. In his swan song, Yeager amassed 800 points, far ahead of Russ Kirkpatrick of Clarksburg, W. Va., who was second with 525 points.

Bill, aged 29, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Yeager, Sr., 404 Conewango Avenue.

Queen and Princess Are Both Suffering Colds

Ballater, Scotland, (AP)—Queen Elizabeth II and Princess Margaret today were reported shaking off colds which have kept them indoors during their vacation.

The royal family is at Balmoral Castle for an annual holiday after a strenuous summer social season. Princess Margaret celebrates her 27th birthday Wednesday. She is expected to be well enough to enjoy the festivities at a private family party.

The weather has been blustery and wet in Scotland.

Frank Burgett of Lander, Times Publishing Company entry in the National Soap Box Sweepstakes, acquitted himself well in Akron, Ohio, Sunday before a delegation of 60 hometowners who cheered him on.

Frank, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. Wendell Burgett, of Lander, sped down the 900-foot Derby Downs in 27.78 seconds, just fractions of a second behind the 27.20-second time of Terry Townsend of Anderson, Ind., who won the Soap Box Derby which marked the 20th anniversary of the spectacle. The largest crowd (estimated at 75,000) was on hand.

Frank was nosed out by Wayne Temme of Evanston, Ind., who finished fourth in the race out of 162 participants. Derby Director Dana Harland, his wife, Mary; Richard Cook, head of the Jaycees; Sallie Haley, Miss Mardi Gras were among those present in the Warren delegation.

Dan's Chevrolet and Warren Times-Mirror sponsored the event which was organized by the Jaycees.

Akron, Ohio, (AP)—For the second time in the 20-year history of the All America Soapbox Derby, the champion is from Anderson, Ind.

A crowd of 70,000 watched yesterday as a blue and white racer driven by 15-year-old Terry Townsend flashed to a length-and-a-half victory in the championship heat. Another Anderson boy, Maurice Bale, Jr., now a farmer, took home the grand championship in 1935.

Terry's racer covered the 975.4-foot distance down the dark green concrete runway at Derby Downs in 27.18 seconds, an average of over 24 miles an hour. First prize was a $5,000 scholarship.

David Hakman, 15, of Los Angeles won a $4,000 scholarship for his second-place finish. A Canadian boy, Andy Vasko of St. Catharines, Ont., finished third. He won a $3,000 scholarship. A $2,000 scholarship was the fourth-place prize won by 14-year-old James Pryor of Long Beach, Calif.

Richard Adams, 15, of Shamokin, Pa., finished sixth.

REPORT SAYS RIGHTISTS ARE BEING PURGED

By TOM MASTERSON

Beirut, Lebanon (AP)—Volatile Syria apparently moved closer to the Communist bloc today as pro-Soviet officers purged rightists from the politically powerful army.

Gen. Afif Bizry, known throughout the Middle East as the most extreme leftist in Syria's army, took control of the army over the weekend, usually reliable sources said.

Bizry, 43, a known Communist, immediately began to purge right-wing opponents. Thirteen officers were fired or resigned in Damascus and a number fled to Beirut.

While Premier Sabri Assali's Moscow-oriented government seemed to have been strengthened President Shukri Kuwaily's professed neutrality between East and West—already cloudy behind Russian arms deals—became a little more indistinct.

Kuwaily had once threatened to resign rather than let Communist supporters take complete control of the army. But the weekend's virtual coup d'etat by leftists came with formal approval of the sick President.

Kuwaily signed a presidential decree Saturday jumping Bizry from lieutenant colonel to general and making him army commander in chief and chief of staff, an official announcement said.

Then, amid rumors that Kuwaily had resigned—which Assali denied—the President flew to Egypt yesterday. In Cairo for the third time in six months, he talked with Egyptian President Nasser for more than an hour.

Air Force Doctor Spends 24 Hours On Outer Space Brink

Crosby, Minn., (AP)—A huge silver balloon rose from a cavernous iron mine today carrying an Air Force doctor skyward for a 24 hour look at the brink of outer space.

As helicopters hovered around the huge pit, Maj. David G. Simons was lifted in an unprecedented experiment in aerial medicine.

A bright northern Minnesota sun burned off an early morning fog. Then the balloon, an exclamation point shimmering against a background of the jagged deep red iron ore, hoisted the 34-year-old airman.

In second were Grey Knights of Rochester with $400 in prize money. Others, in order of their finish were: Batavia Cavaliers, $300, Toledo, Ohio, Demons, $200, Vern Acklin Cavaliers, $100.

Asiatic Flu Is Discussed At 6th Annual Health Conference

University Park, (AP)—Dr. Berwyn F. Mattison, state health secretary, said today that secondary infections that follow Asiatic flu can be "effectively combatted" by present-day anti-biotics.

"It is reassuring to note that so far the cases reported have been extremely mild," he said.

"It is likely that the mortality associated with an outbreak of this disease will be through the effects of secondary invaders."

Dr. Mattison went on to explain to the 6th annual Health conference that these secondary diseases can be controlled for the most part by antibiotics.

More than 1,000 public health workers registered for the four-day session opening today. The conference is sponsored jointly by the State Health Department and private health groups.

The subject of Asiatic flu, a new one at these conferences, took up a sizeable portion of Dr. Mattison's speech which dealt in general terms with health problems in the state.

Dr. Mattison described Asiatic flu as "a new and perhaps even more extensive epidemic problem" than polio and diphtheria.

Memorial Gift Plan Announced By The Co. Cancer Society

In response to frequent requests for such a service the Warren County Unit of the American Cancer Society has established a Memorial Gift Program. It was announced today by Dr. John W. Larson, Unit President.

"We have had numerous inquiries from persons who desire to make gifts to the Cancer Society in memory of a deceased friend or relative," Dr. Larson said. "Perhaps it is not widely known but we have a formal program for such gifts. Under this plan," Dr. Larson stated, "a specially designed card of announcement will be sent to the relative of the deceased cancer victim in whose name a gift is given to the American Cancer Society and another card of acknowledgment will be sent to the donor."

A new leaflet describing the Memorial Gift Program is available at the local office of the Warren County Unit, 404 Market street. More and more people are finding solace in a memorial contribution to the American Cancer Society, Dr. Larson said. While today we do not have the answer to our fight against cancer, it will be found some day, we hope soon through the use of funds supplied our researchers in part by the Memorial Gift Program."

Conewango Club To Picnic Wednesday

Members of the Conewango Club will hold their annual picnic this Wednesday afternoon at the Kalbfus Gun Club.

Members of the Club will gather from 4 p. m. on. They will find ample parking and at 6:30 will sit down to a chicken BAR-B-Q dinner complete with corn on the cob and all trimmings served by Lewis Caterers.

In case of rain the picnic will "go" just the same as the House Committee has arranged facilities inside the Kalbfus Club House where accommodations are ample to serve 100 or so persons.

Members who have not yet made their reservations are reminded to do so this evening as reservations close at that time.

Wholesale prices for Blue Sunoco 240 were reduced by the same amount to 18.8 cents per gallon in western Pennsylvania, and to 18.1 in the east. # Warren To Be Honored With 1st Production of Passion Play

Oberammergau Players Open Their Initial World Tour With 5 Performances at Beatty School

The original authentic American version of the famed Oberammergau Passion Play, as performed at Oberammergau, Bavaria, Germany for 324 years will be presented in Warren for the first time. Through the combined efforts of Consolidated Concerts Corporation of New York and its president, Charles E. Green, and Victor Spouse of New York, a veteran of 25 years experience in presenting the famed Passion Play drama of millions of people, Americans and Canadians will this year see the most famous of all Biblical dramas.

First performed in 1634, it has always been different from the Passion Plays and Miracle Plays given in other parts of the world, evidenced by the fact that when prohibited elsewhere, it was permitted in Oberammergau. Permanent permission to produce the play was bestowed on the village in 1800. The oldest known script of the play is one written in 1662. It is stated by students that this text is composed of two still older: one used in Augsburg in the 15th century, the other the work of Sebastian Wild written in the 16th century. The present text used in Oberammergau was written in the year 1810-1815 by Peter Ottmar Weiss. The final revision was made by the good angel of the village, the beloved Father Alois Daisenberger.

The first performance was given at Oberammergau in 1634 and repeated approximately every ten years since. The noted drama is performed in three parts including 18 acts and 24 tableaux. The running time of the performance is from 8 a. m. to 6 p. m. with two hour intermissions at noon. Presentation is given from May 15th to September 30th—a period of about 16 weeks.

For the first American tour of the New World version the producers have adapted the script for the first time into English. They have also eliminated all of the tableaux and added additional scenes, so that the American version is presented in 22 scenes with a running time of 2½ hours, which is customary in the American theatre.

In Europe, many illustrious spectators have witnessed the great production including 5 kings of Bavaria, Queen Isabella of Spain, German Emperor Friedrich Wilhelm, King Edward the 8th, Richard Wagner, Adelina Patti and many of the famous singers and actors of the world. The great cosmopolitan audiences moved the eminent Christus portrayal of a generation ago, Mr. Anton Lang, to express hope that "The Passion Play will constitute a basis for a more friendly intercourse between nations, and result in a better international understanding."

From the summer pilgrimage in the high Bavarian Alps to the New World is a long jump. But just as in Oberammergau the Play will beckon, and Americans and Canadians who are seeing the original authentic version as performed in Oberammergau for 324 years, and now presented in Warren, will respond. They will come to see the age old drama for the first time presented in English on the modern American stage. They will come with varying motives—deep reverence, as to a shrine—careless curiosity, as to a show. In these varied attitudes of mind will come young and old, school boy and professor, layman and priest, minister and rabbi. All will be drawn by the magnetism of the story of the Cross, for now, for the first time in America and Canada, the story is brought to our own doorstep. Our people will witness not a spectacle but an influence—one destined to last through all the days that are to come.

The ancient drama is the fulfillment of a religious vow. The story is told in an old chronicle which is preserved in the village archives. According to this chronicle, a terrible pestilence visited Germany in the year 1350, one of the results of the 30 Years War. Whole villages were wiped out but Oberammergau maintained a strict quarantine and for a time escaped disaster. Unfortunately, a poor fellow named Casper Shusler—the name being carefully preserved in the chronicle—who was working in a neighboring town, desired to spend the week with his family. He broke through the quarantine, carrying death and destruction with him. In 33 days nearly a hundred of the villagers had perished. In their despair, the people betook themselves to their one recourse—God. Their extremity was great, but their faith greater, and God was able to save! So the villagers pledged themselves to a certain course—for all time to periodically render their Passion Play, in return for their deliverance. The compact was made, and—skeptical criticism to the contrary, notwithstanding—the records state that from that hour, the plague was stayed. The following year the Play was given in fulfillment of the vow, and from that time until the present, 324 years later, in spite of many obstacles, the vow has been kept.

For the first tour in the New World, as it will be presented in Warren with the dialogue translated from German to English, the committee has chosen Val Balfour to interpret the part of Jesus of Nazareth. Supporting parts will be portrayed by a huge distinguished cast. The producer, Victor Spouse, with a quarter of a century of Passion Play experience to his credit, has hailed Mr. Balfour's interpretation of the Christus as the most sincere and outstanding portrayal of modern times. "In my opinion," stated Spouse, "Mr. Balfour's sincere, humble portrayal of Jesus is comparable to the great Anton Lang, Christus portrayal of a generation ago."

Mr. Balfour is the 4th generation in his family to make Biblical drama his life work. In preparation for the role he now takes, he has given interpretation to many of the male roles in the Passion Play. While preparing for the part of Jesus of Nazareth, he played the role of the disciple Simon Peter, who was known as the "Rock" by the Saviour. Laymen, churchmen and educators are unanimous in their opinion that Mr. Balfour achieves commanding power in the greatest and most difficult role an actor can undertake.

The Warren Jr. Chamber of Commerce in Warren are to be highly commended in making the world's greatest drama available to the citizens of Warren. Information for advance reservations may be had by writing to Passion Play Headquarters, Columbia Theatre, Warren, Pa.

ROADSIDE EROSION CRITICIZED

We are in receipt of a communication from a reader containing a reprint of a letter to the editor of a Pittsburgh paper criticizing the use of poison spray to destroy trees, shrubbery and weeds along the highways, that may interfere with utility wires. The letter to the Pittsburgh paper says among other things "Is it too much to ask the public utility firms to control nature, not destroy it? Must everything that is destructive be excused in the name of efficiency and progress?"

The agenda to the editor of the Times-Mirror says: "I would like to say 'ditto' for this for Warren County. I think that you misrepresent the facts when you tell folks to come to your 'great outdoors'—then subject them to have to view the dead and unsightly roadsides that are present in the county. Take a ride along your once beautiful Route 62 from Warren to Oil City—especially in Warren County and see the mess. This causes erosion along the highway also, for the taxpayer to have to remedy and clean up. Well, we have put our cottage up for sale and have discouraged friends from frequenting the once beautiful Allegheny valley in Warren County. Also, you should try to discourage the throwing of trash or litterbugs. How about some large drums or cans along the highway for the people to dispose of their waste? How about some encouragement for those that have waste to dispose of? It is too bad you don't want visitors."

Residents of the area are indebted to officers and members of Chief Cornplanter Post No. 135 and its scintillating Drum & Bugle Corps for a delightful evening of spectacular entertainment in the presentation of "The Spectacle of Music" at War Memorial Field Saturday before a crowd estimated at 3,000 "satisfied and thrilled" customers. All concerned have every reason to feel quite elated over the success of the affair, which, we are happy to state, appears like an annual event on the local calendar of summer presentations.

Our representative at the annual Soap Box Derby in Akron Sunday failed to be listed among the winners, but his modest personality and freckled smile helped to keep Warren on the map so far as the Classic is concerned. Frank Burgett, of Lander, upheld the Warren tradition in a manner that made everyone from the area watching the event from the sidelines very proud of him.

Matter Of Fact:

Bourges-Maunoury's France

By JOSEPH ALSOP

If you travel much between France and England, as this reporter has recently been doing, the contrast between these two Western allies ends by seeming downright mystifying.

In England, the disaster at Suez changed everything, leaving behind an altogether new bitterness and sense of being diminished, bringing in a new government, causing a sharp break with all the recent past. In France, on the contrary, the disaster at Suez changed nothing leaving the vast majority of people here quite untouched by any sense of defeat and even rather exhilarated.

No doubt this is largely to be explained by the difference in the British and French experiences in the post-war years. Britain ended the second World War in glorious victory. But the effort had been exhausting. For Britain therefore the post-war years have been a long struggle against odds to maintain the standards of a first class world power while satisfying the material aspirations of the British people. And at Suez the odds against Britain as a first class power finally proved to be too heavy.

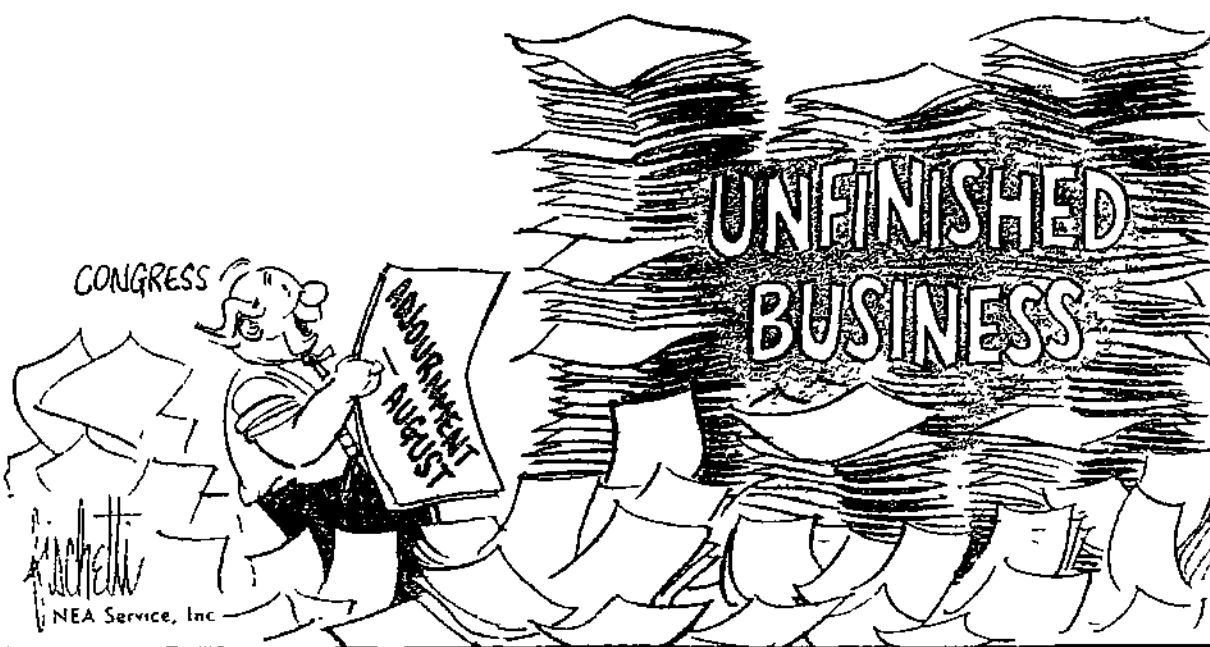

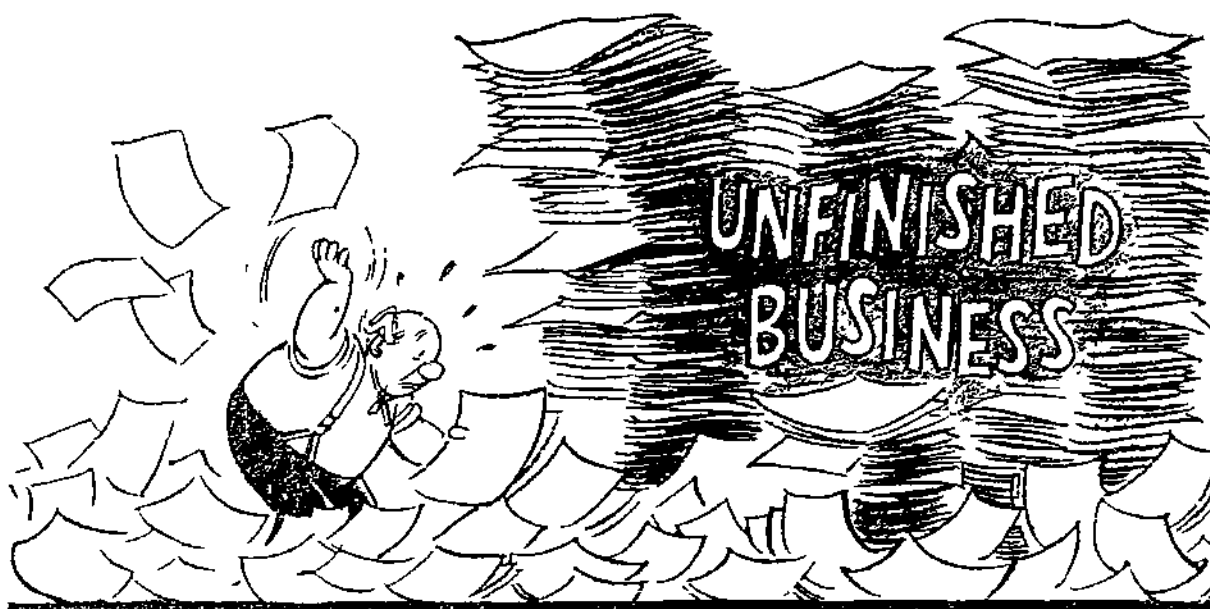

France, in contrast, ended the second World War with all the same anger, all the tendency towards internal incrimination, recrimination, all the flat hopelessness, of a nation that has experienced both surrender and occupation. In those post-war years in France, it seemed to this reporter as it seemed to the vast majority of Frenchmen, that France would never live again as a great nation.

It is hard to decide exactly what brought about the immense change that has taken place in France since that early period of flat hopelessness. On cause perhaps was France's natural wealth which is greater than Britain's. Another cause, almost certainly, was the program of tacit investment drawn up by Jean Monnet and carried through, with Marshall aid, by the French Government in the early post-war time. That program was certainly aimed at national renovation.

The starting point that most people now miss, however, is simply

"Ah! Here It Is"

Here and There

Here's an interesting article dropped into the office by our old friend and Times Square neighbor, Bert G. Kofod, proprietor of the Kofod Piano Shop, 224 Pennsylvania avenue, west. The writer feels that this article is worth your personal attention. A few days ago a young lady with her mother came into our piano and organ store. The mother asked me the permission to let the young lady, only twelve years of age to play the Lowrey organ. The mother informed me that the daughter had wanted to try playing on an electronic Hi-Fi organ for some time. She promised the daughter she would ask our permission when down town in our neighborhood to let the daughter have her wish.

To my astonishment the young lady sat down to the organ and played said organ with her foot pedals and her hands as if she had played for years and the true facts are she has never tried playing any organ at any time, thus being the first time seeing and hearing proves beyond a doubt that Warren county has some outstanding people regardless of age. I asked permission to use the daughter's name but the mother felt it would be too much publicity. But we will be glad if any one wishes the name and any further information by calling at our store. We have in Warren several people of distinction who are rated in Who's Who in Washington, D. C. Signed, B. G. Kofod.

A different piece of mail came into the editorial rooms a few days ago from The Puss'n Boots Bronze Award, Committee of Selections, New York, stating that in our June 21st issue was a story about a cat named "Tiger" and they wanted to know who wrote the story. Seems that they give awards to cats for some reason or other, and wanted to give the cat's owners, "Mr. and Mrs. Rafach" an award—actually the cat was getting the award! Sender of the letter, Dorothy K. Smith, Secretary of the committee on selections, wanted to know the address of the "Rafachs" so an award could be presented to them—by us! After investigation through files "Tiger" was found. It was an NEA feature story and we only knew what the story stated. A letter from the editorial rooms sent the clipping to D. K. Smith with the suggestion that the Rafachs could be found in Kingston, Pa.—at least that's what the story said!

Confirming reports circulated some time ago word has been received in Youngsville that pursuant to certificate of public convenience issued July 22, 1957, at Docket No. A-83630 by the Pennsylvania Utility Commission, the Pennsylvania Railroad Company will change the status of its station at Youngsville from that of an agency passenger, baggage and freight station, effective October first. Freight will be taken to Youngsville on Tuesdays and Thursdays from Warren and will be delivered to the stores and homes in the borough. If anyone has a shipment to be sent out it will be necessary to call the Warren station. The change will in terference little with the people of the borough, but those residing outside the limits of the town should have freight sent prepaid and for the present will be able to pick it up at the freight building.

Thoughts for Today

PEOPLE usually go to a lake for peace and quiet. Too often they are forced to listen to loud portable radios or the shouts and squeals of boisterous groups.

Keith Otterbein Is Home From Rare Work Experience

Keith Otterbein, son of Dr. and Mrs. Ralph F. Otterbein of 311 Liberty street, is back in town after an unusually interesting summer experience, two months spent with an archeological survey team from University of Arizona.

Although Globe, Ariz., was headquarters for the group, the majority of Otterbein's time was spent in the nearby San Carlos Indian Reservation, excavating for relics in pueblos of a prehistoric Indian village. It is recalled it was in this rugged area the famed Apache, Geronimo, was captured after eluding U. S. Army units for many years.

Each summer, the archeological team enters new areas in the Southwest to search out more findings that will increase knowledge of the first settlers of this country. The team is composed of professors and scientists from University of Arizona and students selected from leading schools in this country and abroad. They were all students in this summer's party.

Young Otterbein will soon enter his final year at The Pennsylvania State University, where he is a liberal arts student, majoring in anthropology and sociology. Upon graduation, he hopes to do advanced work in the field of anthropology, the study of races, history, and evolution of mankind.

The Club Week program combines instruction, entertainment, and recreation and is designed to give the 4-H delegates a wide range of experiences that will help them in their club work when they return home.

To be eligible to attend Club Week 4-H members must have one year of completed club work and be over 14 years of age.

Miss Eleanor Barnes, summer assistant home economist and Bernard Wingert, assistant county agent accompanied the county delegation to Club Week.

Club Week is one of the big events on the 4-H program each year and the boys and girls returned with a clearer knowledge of The Pennsylvania State University and its service to the people of the state. They also acquired new ideas while observing the many exhibits, tours, judging contests and demonstrations.

North and South Dakota separated in 1889, each becoming a state.

that France has now achieved national renovation—one is almost tempted to say national renaissance. Every practical index proves the dramatic rebirth of French national leadership. The birth rate has risen astonishingly. The rate of industrial output has risen even more astonishingly. Many other signs point in the same direction. This reporter has not spent much time in France in the last five years but expected no great change when he returned here. Hence the experience of returning and seeing the new self-confidence and new energy of France have been immensely exciting and impressive. And this new energy and new self-confidence were proof against the set-back at Suez.

The change in France has been masked from the world, meanwhile, for a simple reason. Although the country has greatly altered, the Government has not altered. The Cabinet of Prime Minister Bourges-Maunoury represents approximately the same uneasy balance of conflicting interests and opposed viewpoints that every French Cabinet has represented since General Charles de Gaulle left office in a huff, shortly after the war.

The natural result of this kind of government was bitterly described to this reporter by a brilliant and cynical young French Deputy during a discussion of the Algerian problem. "We cannot make war because it would offend the Left," said the Deputy, as though he were stating a Euclidean proposition. "And we cannot make peace because it would offend the Right. So we continue to shed blood and pour out treasure with no end in view."

This Governmental inability to take great decisions is not absolute, and it does not mean that French governments lack very able and courageous men. One such man is Bourges-Maunoury's youthful, astute and tough Finance Minister, Felix Gaillard. Gaillard has not exactly checked France's dangerous fiscal drifting, which has continued for so many years. But he has, so to speak, got the vessel under partial control, and thus he has roused real hope for the fiscal future.

In sum, the French outlook would be decidedly promising if it were not for the basic, still unsettled question of France's standing, not as a great nation but as a great world power. In a queer way, France's national revival has made this an acute question. Few Frenchmen would have bothered to claim standing for France as a world power ten years ago, but most of them do so now.

This question, plus the torturing problem of the mission and more Frenchmen who make their homes there, are the two real roots of the Algerian difficulty. Even more than the uneasy balance in the Government, these are the reasons why in Algeria, France will neither make war nor peace. And once again, as in the case of Britain, the unanswered question about France's standing as a world power is a constant threat to the unity of the Western Alliance. Indeed, the outlook now is that the dispute about Algeria will cause a split between France and the other Western allies, at the on-coming session of the United Nations, that will be deeper and worse than any split in the Western Alliance in all the post-war years.

Counterspy Names Socialite As Part Of Soviet Regime

Washington (AP) — House investigators say testimony by U.S. counterspy Boris Morros clearly establishes the daughter of a former U.S. Ambassador "as part of the Soviet apparatus."

Chairman Walter (D-Pa.) of the House Committee on Un-American Activities said Morros has named Martha Dodd Stern as a Soviet spy who once tried to betray Morros' counterspy activities to the Soviets.

Mrs. Stern is the socialite daughter of the late William E. Dodd, who was ambassador to Nazi Germany from 1933 to 1938. She and her husband recently vanished from Mexico City and belief has been expressed both are now behind the Iron Curtain.

Walter said testimony by Morros "clearly established Martha Dodd . . . and her husband, Alfred Stern, as part of the Soviet's apparatus." Stern is a wealthy investment broker.

Morros, a Russian-born Hollywood composer-director, was revealed last week as a double agent who had fooled the Soviets for 12 years. He gave first details in a news conference in New York, and Walter said he gave the committee further information under oath in New York Friday.

Titusville Girl

The injured girl to the hospital in the local ambulance.

According to parents of the victim, the two girls and a boy friend drove up to visit another friend in Dunkirk, N. Y. after shopping and then started back to Titusville. Miss Roseman's mother denied that she would have been driving, observing that her daughter does not have an operator's permit. The Jamestown boyfriend said that Miss Moore was driving when they started back to Titusville. There were no skid marks at the accident scene to indicate that the car driver swerved to avoid the abutment. The night was extremely foggy.

It was Warren County's fifth traffic fatality of 1957. The last happened June 26th.

The two girls, both contestants in a Miss Crawford County beauty contest had left home Friday afternoon to go shopping for foot-wear in Jamestown. New shoes were found in wreckage of the vehicle.

Miss Moore was born Jan. 24, 1938 at Franklin. She is survived by her parents, Harold and Leona Moore; a brother, James Moore; grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Moore, all of Titusville; and a grandmother, Mrs. Elizabeth Shoupe of Franklin.

She was employed as a switch-board operator at Fisher and Young Builders Supply. Miss Moore graduated from Titusville High School in 1955 and was a member of Methodist Church.

Report Says

The Syrian and Egyptian armies are united under the joint command of an Egyptian officer and both are heavily stocked with Soviet arms. But Nasser has kept his own Communists suppressed.

Purpose of Kuwatty's trip was officially announced as a medical checkup in Alexandria. He flew to Alexandria after seeing Nasser and went to a hospital.

The events that brought Communists to power in the army of Missouri-sized Syria began—in the best fashion of Soviet Russia—with charges of foreign plotting to overthrow the government.

Well-informed sources here said Syria's charge last Tuesday that the United States was seeking to oust Kuwatty was used as a blind for the leftists.

The government ordered three American diplomats out of the country after charging a U. S. plot to "buy" a pro-American regime with economic aid offers after a coup d'etat. The State Department called the charges pure fabrication and expelled two Syrian diplomats in retaliation.

13th Blast Postponed Because of Conditions

Atomic Test Site, Nev., (AP)—The 13th test in the summer series of atomic tests was postponed 24 hours today because of unfavorable weather conditions.

The bomb, named "Doppler," was scheduled to be fired at 5:30 a. m. from a balloon 1,500 feet above the desert. The Atomic Energy Commission said the explosion was called off because thunderheads developed and because winds might make balloon handling difficult.

An explosion yesterday, though described as below nominal in power produced a rumbling shock wave felt in communities 200 miles from here.

To Make Your Food Safer—

She Fights Against Sale of Foul Fowl

By ALICIA HART
NEA Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON—(NEA)—The decision of a woman business-machine expert to run for Congress is playing a large part in making your family's food safer to eat.

Rep. Leonor K. Sullivan (D-Mo.) feels proud of a recent House action to make poultry inspection a national law. Although the bill does not bear her name, it contains ideas which she has been fighting for the last three years.

Since 1954, the first congresswoman from Missouri has been warning that much of the poultry consumed by Americans is not fit to eat. Two earlier bills which she submitted resulted from her investigations which showed dirty, diseased chickens and turkeys were being sold to the public.

But advocating that all poultry, like beef, should be federally inspected never entered her mind until recent years. Before marrying the late Congressman John B. Sullivan, she was busy running a business school in St. Louis. There she specialized in teaching her students how to operate an accounting machine.

Leonor K. Sullivan

MRS. SULLIVAN moved to Washington with her husband during the early part of World War II. Since congressmen were having a hard time finding any office help, she went to work for him. The job taught her an interest in Congress which later was to spur her into becoming an actual member of it.

After her husband's death in 1951, Mrs. Sullivan worked a year for another congressman. When she had saved enough money, the former business school teacher went back to Missouri to campaign. The years of political experience, gained with her husband, paid off. She won the election and returned to Washington to be re-elected twice.

HER INTEREST in sanitary food laws didn't start until she was asked by a St. Louis woman's club, interested in consumer affairs, to speak on the Pure Food and Drug Act. Knowing little about the subject, she spent long hours in a library studying.

Then she invited the club to act as her advisory committee. Its job was to point out loopholes in the food laws which needed correcting. It was this same group, The St. Louis Consumer Federation, which aroused her interest in the need for stronger poultry inspection.

The unpleasant things Mrs. Sullivan has learned about the poultry business haven't spoiled her appetite for chicken. "I love it," she says. But she won't eat fowl without knowing it has been inspected and received a clean bill of health. And she advises all housewives to do the same.

Tom Gerarde, Tiona, Becomes Topnotch Light Heavyweight; Finds Few Sparring Partners

The curly, black-haired youth with fists doubled ready for his oncoming fights is 17-year old Tom Gerarde, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Gerarde, Tiona. Tom is now training at the "Y" in Warren for fights which his new manager, Joe Fazio, is trying to arrange in Buffalo, Canada and that vicinity on the Amateur card.

Joe said that Tom has a good chance to "put Warren on the map if he keeps going the way he's going now—and I think he will—and put his name from coast to coast" in the boxing profession.

Tom boxed in Erie in the Erie Police Boy's league where he had six fights, won five, two with kayos, and lost one to a colored boy in Erie due to a sore finger bouts are reported to be going on.

Tom's father, a Golden Glove winner, and a cousin both did some boxing which undoubtedly accounts for his great interest in the sport. His manager said, "The kid has his whole heart in it" and said he can really throw those left jabs. A large number of people, mainly fellows, have been asking about Tom and what he could do.

Young Gerarde plans to play football with Warren High Dragons this fall.

Mr. Fazio, himself a boxer in Warren when the amateur fighting was a great sport here, quit boxing in 1938. He said they held bouts at Conewango Club, Armory, and Hubbard's Garage.

Joe said he's willing to take any boy and show him the "ropes", but only if he has parents' consent. A class could be started at the "Y" for beginners. Tom is having a hard time finding somebody to go a few rounds with him. Some boys at the "Y" go a few with him, but are a little leary of him.

Joe is married to the former Joan McCuckin and they have two children, Dino, 5, and Sally, 4. An employee of Struthers-Wells, Joe calls 1112 Madison avenue "home".

Warren Lions Beat Russell to Cinch The Cadet Emblem

Warren Lions took Cadet Championship honors in the Warren Hot Stove League, winning a thriller Friday evening from Russell Merchants 4 to 3. After losing the opening game to Lions, 5-0, Russell started with three runs in the first, and Lions had to battle uphill to win. They made up one in the second when Tom Yerg singled and later scored on a passed ball. Then on the top of the sixth, they really exploded. With one away, Bill Laison singled and Pat Hartnett was safe on an error. Then Roll Poust unloaded a long homer to centerfield. That was all the Lions needed as they played bang-up ball rest of the way, ending the game with a fast double play.

Both pitchers, Barry Johnson and Al Ludwick, pitched their usual fine games, although Barry was tougher with men on base.

This ends Cadet season with Warren Lions as winners with an undefeated 17-0 record. Coaches for Lions were Les Larson and Tony Beveving and these men are to be commended for the fine play of their young team.

★ GRAYSON'S SCOREBOARD ★

Next Big Baseball Bomb Likely to Rock Cleveland

BY HARRY GRAYSON
NEA Sports Editor

CLEVELAND—(NEA)—The next big baseball bomb is quite likely to rock Cleveland.

The situation on the lakefront is of grave concern to the American League, already saddled with a hopeless set-up in Washington and dwindling interest in Kansas City.

A bold stroke must be made when attendance drops nearly two million in nine years, which is the sad story in Cleveland, a franchise made the best in the business by the master showman, William L. Veck Jr.

The out-and-out panic in Cleveland is much too serious to be assuaged in the customary easiest-way-out way—by firing the manager, in this case Kerby Farrell, who hardly has been around long enough to become acquainted.

It easily could result in the sale of the club by the practically absentee principal owners and financiers, William R. Daley and Ignatius Aloysius O'Shaughnessy, the latter of St. Paul.

THE NUMBER OF PAYING GUESTS has fallen off so alarmingly that there has been substantial talk of switching the Indians to the new stadium in Minneapolis.

A much more likely development would be the dismissal of Hank Greenberg as general manager.

There are numerous reasons given for the gradual decline of Cleveland attendance from the all-time major league record of 2,260,000 in 1948. The record shows that the fans did not quit on the Indians easily or suddenly. There were 2,233,000 paid in 1949, 1,727,000 in '50, 1,704,000 in '51, 1,444,000 in '52, 1,069,000 in '53, 1,335,000 in the pennant-winning year of '54 and 1,221,000 in '55.

Last year the attendance dropped below the million mark for the first time since 1945. It was 865,467.

This year the Indians will be hard pressed to draw 700,000. They went above the half-million mark only with the aid of the last weekend series against the Yankees, which drew 109,000.

The remaining home schedule is totally unattractive and the latest disaster in New York isn't going to help things any.

THERE IS ORGANIZED resentment against the front office, particularly Greenberg, who pulls well with everybody except the addicts who have to support his policy in Cleveland. For some reason, old Hankus Pankus is murdered by followers of the Tribe, treated as though he had just dropped an easy fly to lose another game.

The fans grew tired of running second—five out of six years. The Giants sweeping the 1954 World Series in four straight from an outfit which won a record 121 games hurt badly. Games were telecast a bit too freely for a spell and the trade didn't like it when the free ride was abbreviated.

THE INDIANS are a dull, uninteresting lot with no spectacular individual attraction.

Despite new turnpikes, the customers no longer come in droves from out of town.

Bill Veck was called back this year, but fireworks, roving musicians and give-aways no longer worked.

Meanwhile, the Indians dropped far off the pace, and the clamor for a new deal all around became louder.

It will take all that—and then some—to bring back what until recently was a matchless piece of baseball property.

Wildcats Tounce Kane Legion, 9-0

Ludlow Wildcats aided the brilliant three-hit pitching of Fred Gray and Keith Holden with a homer by John Castagnino and Basil Kulka's three hits to defeat Kane Legion 9-0 yesterday at Wildcat Park. The victory marked Fred Gray's 12th win this year for the Wildcats against one defeat.

Ludlow scored six runs in the first inning, including shortstop John Castagnino's homer, and this was too much for Kane to overcome.
